

The Advance Sale of Seats for this Special Performance will take place on

Thursday, February 27th

AT 11 A.M.

at the NEW GENERAL TICKET OFFICE
in the LITTLE BUILDING LOBBY

MAIL ORDERS WILL BE FILLED IMMEDIATELY
AFTER THE ADVANCE SALE

CONDITIONS OF SALE

Each Noble will be allowed 4 tickets on each membership card for 1919 which he presents.

All Tickets will go on sale at the Regular Theater Prices.

—◆—
Nobles

H. B. PERKINS, E. D. SMITH, and D. B. FINESTONE will be in the Ticket Office in charge of the sale

Respectfully submitted,

A. H. HALL, Captain
J. A. RAY, Captain
L. HARLOW, Leader

You are invited to the Grand Theater Peace Festival

for the benefit of the ARAB PATROL, DEGREE STAFF, and FIFE and DRUM CORPS of

ALEPPO TEMPLE, A.A.O.N.M.S.

MAJESTIC THEATER, THURSDAY

March 6, 1919

YOU will see the Regular Performance, with Appropriate Interpolations, of those World Renowned Entertainers

McINTYRE and HEATH

AND A

JUBILEE CAST OF 100

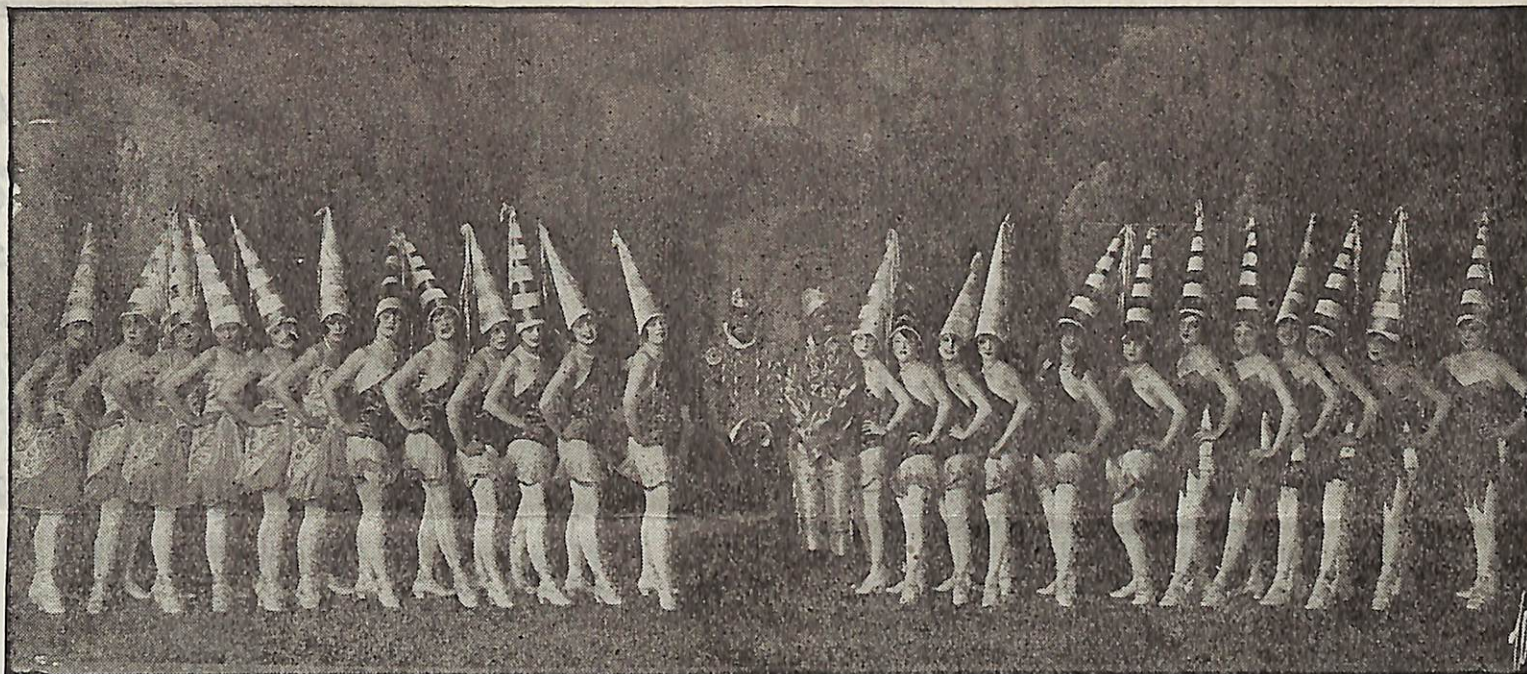

*including many SONG and DANCE FAVORITES and FIFTY TALENTED BROADWAY BEAUTIES
in the Gorgeous Musical Extravaganza*

"HELLO, ALEXANDER"

—◆—
SPECIAL FEATURE: The curtain will rise promptly at 7.40, and a concert will be rendered by ALEPPO GRAND FIFE and DRUM CORPS, under Director Noble Louis Harlow, preceding the McIntyre and Heath performance, which begins at 8 o'clock sharp.

Not in years has Boston had such an Amusement Sensation.

It is the Show that put "PEP" in Pepper

It is a Riot of FUN.

The
whirlwind
Fun, Music and Dance Hit of after-the-war times

DO YOU KNOW ABOUT THOSE
"BOOPUS FEATHERS"

LET McINTYRE and HEATH
TELL YOU ABOUT THEM

Did you read what the Boston papers thought of it?

"'Hello, Alexander' is a hit. McIntyre and Heath welcomed by Hub theatergoers."—Boston Post.

"Merry melange of fun, music, and spectacle. Series of spirited dances, repartee, specialties, ensembles galore, up-to-date songs, etc."—Boston Globe.

"Show pleases large audience."—Philip Hale in Boston Herald.

"Whole show run off at top speed."—Fred J. McIsaac in Boston American.

"Good music, pretty stage pictures, and lots of fun."—F. H. Cushman in Boston Record.

"A feast of fun."—Katherine Lyons in Boston Traveler.

THE AEROPLANE SPEED
SHOW

IT'S OFF AT A "180-MILES-AN-HOUR" RATE

GET ABOARD. Take an Aeroplane to catch up if you have to, but GET ABOARD!

McINTYRE and HEATH

Entertained your fathers and mothers and possibly your grandmothers and grandfathers, and they are

FUNNIER THAN EVER, NOW